From Your Legion Post Chaplain

During the month of May we want to pay tribute to those brothers and sisters, our “buddies,” who poured out their full measure of devotion upon the altar of freedom. The sacred memory of their selflessness and the freedom they died to obtain will live forever. Many served, and thousands of others in all the wars that America has fought, purchased by their blood the freedoms that we enjoy today in “the land of the free, and the home of the brave.” We all can agree these battlefields of the world today are hallowed and holy to every American, and we pause to give them our highest honors, humbly realizing the sacred trust that these, our war dead, have handed to us.

Almighty God, in Your hands are the living and the dead. We give You thanks for all those, our comrades, who have laid down their lives in the service of our country. May they rest in peace and may Your light shine upon them. May the good work of seeking justice for the oppressed and peace for all people be rewarded with success, so that their sacrifices shall not have been in vain. And may we never fail to remember the awesome cost of freedom that we enjoy.

All of this we ask in Your holy name, for God and Country, Amen

Blessings,

From Your Chaplain Tamara Goodman
